

Dear Caribbean Internet stakeholders,

Hereby I would like to invite you to the second Caribbean Peering and Interconnection Forum (CarPIF) which will take place on June 8th and 9th at the Renaissance hotel in Curacao.

CarPIF is an initiative of Packet Clearing House(PCH) and the Internet Society(ISOC), with the support of CaribNOG and the CTU.

AMS-IX is co-host of this event.

CarPIF offers a platform to acquire and share knowledge through inspiring presentations, panel discussions and networking time on connectivity, content delivery & peering, internet exchange points and the digital infrastructure as a driver for innovation & economic growth in the Caribbean.

Meet international and regional peers and industry colleagues from the private and public sector. Participants are Internet Service Providers, Cloud providers, Hosting providers, Content providers, data centers, Internet Exchanges, Telecommunication regulators, Policy makers and research and education entities. Confirmed speakers include Google, Akamai, AMS-IX, Telecommunicacion Gran Caribe (TGC).

The theme of the 2016 event is "The digital infrastructure as a driver for innovation and economic growth in the Caribbean".

The agenda is centered around 3 topics:

1. Regional and local connectivity in the Caribbean;
2. Content delivery and peering in the Caribbean and global trends ;
3. Local content and the digital infrastructure as a driver for innovation & economic growth in the Caribbean.
